

English Programs 2002 (Updated 9-20-02)

Michigan State University

English Language Center

A714 Wells Hall

Services: Classes for MSU students who:

1. have been provisionally admitted to the University until they can enter a degree program
2. are participating in a one year exchange program to study English only.

Tuition: MSU out-of-state

Contact Ann Simon, the Admissions Secretary

Telephone: 353-0800

Email: elc.msu.edu

Website: <http://polygot.cal.msu.edu/elc/>

Early Childhood Development Center

Spartan Village

Services: For Children (ages 0-5) of MSU faculty, staff, and students

Telephone: 353-5154

Paid Private Tutoring

Advertise in the MSU Student Employment office.

Telephone: 355-9520

Lansing Public Schools

English as a Second Language

Education Center

500 W. Lenawee Street

Lansing, Michigan 48933

Telephone: 325-6800

Tuition: Free

Note: Beginning to Advanced classes available. Must come in to sign up. Picture ID is required

Community Volunteers for International Programs (CVIP)

Services for MSU spouses.

Telephone: 353-1735

Trinity Church

3355 Dunckel

Lansing, MI 48911

Telephone: 272-3820

Haslett English Program

Wesley Foundation

118 S. Harrison Rd.

Services: For all Adults 20 and over. Includes MSU spouses. Day classes are free.

Contact: Jo Pamment

Telephone: 337-8353

Community Volunteers for International Programs

Contact: Karen Slessner

Telephone: 353-1735

or

372-4305

Note: Call for more information

Lansing Community College

English as a Second Language

Department of Academic Enrichment Services

Arts & Sciences Building 253

Telephone: 483-1061

Note: Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced classes available.
Must enroll and pay tuition to LCC.