

BOOK-GIVING GUIDELINES

As an individual, business, group, or organization in our community, we are grateful for your interest in supporting The Reading People through your donation of books. All books we receive are given away for free through our book giveaway events, and by inviting our partners, our tutors, local teachers and students, and the public to visit our Book Building to take all they need. We also deliver books to local schools, food banks, home schoolers, daycares, and others.

We accept new or gently used books for all ages. Please call ahead when making large donations (more than 2 boxes). Below is a list of further guidelines for giving.

Interested in making a book donation? Please contact us at mail@thereadingpeople.org or call (517) 485-4949.
